Identifier	ReturnReference	Explanation
Explanation of Fundraising Payments	Schedule G, Part I, Line 2b, Column (v)	During the current fiscal year, the organization engaged various professional fundraising businesses to help the organization solicit contributions as well as provide vital services to help achieve the goals of the organization's educational campaigning efforts. The total included on Schedule G above, represents total fees paid to the various organizations for the year. The organization carefully reviewed the services that each fundraising organization provided during the year in order to allocate the cost of services between fees paid for fundraising and furtherance of its educational campaigns. The organization allocated 100% of telemarkrters' expenses to fundraising. For fiscal year 2011/2012 the organization hired an independent consultant to review the fees for direct mail campaigns and provide a reasonable allocation for the services being provided. Management used the same methodology as the independent consultant,which is consistant with all prior years. Management's assessment provided that $138,837 of the total fees paid were for services in furtherance of the organization's educational campaigns, $2,934 were for general and administrative services and $742,468 was for professional fundraising services. Based on the above allocations, the organization reported $586,292 as professional fundraising services on Line 11e, Part IX, Page 10 of Form 990.
